Ancient shrines celebrating tranquility. Towering skyscrapers overlooking bustling crowds. Two contrasting visions of a country steeped in tradition, but still flourishing with technology. ## Akita

Enjoy a More Ashore Late Night stay in Akita and experience the popular Akita Kanto Festival, held in August. In hope of good harvest, the festival features a procession of 200 bamboo poles with lanterns weighing over 100 pounds, carried on the foreheads or shoulders of the celebrants.

southern islands & japan explorer cruises

Take a glimpse into the past by discovering Okinawa's historic and cultural treasures. The ancient castles of feudal lords and mighty samurai warriors loom upon the horizon. The winds of time swirl within Peace Memorial Park and throughout World War II memorial sites. Your ship will cross gentle seas toward Ishigaki and the shores of Taiwan before reaching Kobe or Tokyo.

captivate

Considered one of the most idyllic places in Japan, Ishigaki Kabira Bay sparkles with green- and blue-hued waters. The Bay is also one of only two black pearl cultivation sites in Japan, and because of this, swimming is not allowed. No worries — onboard charges are priced in U.S. dollars, and a currency exchange is available on your ship.

How can I get there?

Easily book your flights through Princess EZair®. You not only enjoy low prices but also Late Arrival Protection, which ensures you'll get to your cruise even if flights are delayed or canceled. Visit princess.com/ezair for details.

What if I don't like the local cuisine?

When dining on board, you get the best of both worlds — delicious regional dishes and familiar favorites you love. Of course, sampling the world-famous cuisine at a local restaurant ashore is a cruise highlight as well.
